Freedmont Loan Originator – Inside

Description

Our Loan Originators are responsible for generating and developing business from loan applicants with a variety of financial needs.

Loan Originator will be provided with leads from our proprietary web based sources. These leads will be assigned via our CRM/Lead Management system. Loan Originator is expected to contact these leads in a reasonable time frame and attempt to pre-qualify these potential home buyers. Must perform proper follow-up as set-out within our Loan Officer Growth system. Loan Originator must update the CRM and Lead management system with the lead status.

As a Lead Based loan officer you may also originate self-generation business.

This is an in-office loan originator position with required calling hours.

The Loan Originator will act as the liaison between the branch and the applicant and will seek to find a loan product arrangement that is in the best interests of the consumer.

The Loan Originator will evaluate, authorize, and advise borrowers on financial status and methods of payments. The Loan Originators work with a borrower to provide consultation, application, underwriting, approval and deal closing service.

The Loan Originator partners with Processing/Underwriting to determine the applicant's ability to repay the loan according to the various requirements and stipulations outlined by NFM Lending Operations team.

This position requires excellent verbal and written sales communication along with the ability to overcome objections. A Loan Originator must be decisive, driven and be 100% accountable for the experience of the consumer.
